

The LWVOR adopted a position in May 2017 on Civil Discourse. The position is to: "Promote civil discourse through action and education for all government bodies, staff, and citizens for the purpose of improved public policy decisions and processes. Civil discourse means, at a minimum, mutually respectful, courteous, constructive, and orderly communication."

The League of Women Voters of Curry County has invited Marge Easley, LWVOR Civil Discourse Portfolio Chair and Past President, to hold a forum on Civil Discourse on September 13th at 7 PM at the Chetco Library. We cordially invite our County Commissioners and all elected officials in Curry County to attend. This meeting is open to the public and the public is encouraged to attend.
